I am writing this on Monday of Holy Week. As I said in my sermon last Sunday, Holy Week is of the greatest importance to all time and history. Jesus made His triumphant entry into Jerusalem on the Sunday we know as Palm Sunday and the crowds cheered and showed great adoration. But, as is often the case, that adoration turned to hatred, division, and fear. Stirred up by the religious elite, the crowds began to turn on Jesus. Throughout the week Jesus does not even try to hide but rather on one of the days, goes to the Temple and turns things upside down, saying to the money changers and those buying and selling “It is written, “my House is a house of prayer: but you are making it a den of thieves.” He then went out a short distance to Bethany where He stayed with Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. After spending the night, He returns to Jerusalem and continues teaching in the Temple until He is finally arrested on Thursday, betrayed by Judas Iscariot. In a swift, unlawful, and brutal trial Jesus is found guilty of “blasphemy,” the only trumped up charge they can come up with. In one fell swoop Jesus is tried, convicted, and sentenced. Then on what we call “Good Friday” He is hung on the cross.

So, before next Sunday (Easter Sunday) I’d ask each of you to stop and consider this great sacrifice made on your behalf and mine. And next Sunday we will all shout together, “HOSANNA! CHRIST THE LORD IS RISEN TODAY!”

Let me also give a shout out and huge thank you to everyone who gave time, talent, and great effort to again make the Ham N Bean Supper another huge success. THANK YOU!

Blessings!

Thank You Note

To the Congregation of First Christian Church,

The “Omaha Basyes” are sending each of you a huge “thank you” for the unbelievable show of support and continued prayers for our family and the arrival of Barrett Michael and Cohen Bradley. The gift cards, money, diapers, and again your prayers have carried us to the point we are at and we know that you will continue to pray for our family.

We always pray for you all in having to put up with Dad (Pastor Basye) and Mom (Vyrdel)...HAHA, but truly feel very blessed that they have found a home at First Christian and that we are part of that family.

Myla Mae (daughter) is loving her new “title” as BIG SISTER and has to tell everyone she meets that she has baby brothers. Meagan is feeling better each day and is loving “double the love and snuggles” (maybe not double the dirty diapers...HAHA).

We can’t wait to bring them down for a proper thank you, but wanted to let you know how much we appreciated your love and support!

Thanks again and may God bless you all!
Bret, Meagan, Myla, Barrett, & Cohen Basye

*Dear First Christian Church Family,
Thank you for remembering me on my 81st birthday. The flowers were beautiful, and we enjoyed the visit with Mary Martin. Thanks for the birthday cards also.*

CWF Ham N Bean Dinner Report

It was a fun evening when friends and neighbors that came to support their teams for Ham N Beans at First Christian Church.

Thanks to the many, many hard workers who made the evening a success. The soups were delicious, and the pie makers made sure we had enough desserts.

The approximate income of the event of $2,200 dollars will help fund several projects THANKS! Christian Women’s Fellowship
