Notes From the Pastor,

I want to lift up the annual hayride that will take place this Saturday, October 27 out at Brenda & Rick Dooley's farm just north of town on highway 13. This is always a very neat evening of sharing, food and fellowship. It begins at 6:00 p.m. Bring a side dish or dessert. Hot dogs, buns, and drinks are furnished. A huge thank you to Rick and Brenda for extending this wonderful hospitality. If you need directions, please let us know.

Also, next Saturday, (27th) is UCM's homecoming. Our youth group will have a stand set up close to the church. Please drop by if you are at the parade.

On Sunday, November 4, there will be a community worship event that will take place on the courthouse lawn beginning at 4:00 p.m. If anyone would like to be part of the program by offering a word of prayer during the service, please let me know and I will get you the particulars. The event is being called "Johnson County Footprints in Prayer" and will include a prayer walk up to the UCM campus.

I had several ask about the illustration I used last Sunday while talking about leadership, how important it is, and how Jesus was the greatest leader ever. The illustration involves a championship NFL football game.

It was the early years of the National Football league. As the 2nd quarter ended in the championship game between the Packers and Giants, Green Bay coach Curly Lambeau was lost in thought as he made his way to the locker room, plotting strategy, and thinking of a 2nd ½ game plan as the Packers were losing 16-14. His players were waiting, his assistant coaches were waiting. Unfortunately, Lambeau never made it to the locker room. The reason? He got lost—lost in thought he opened what he thought was the locker room door and would up out on the street. Before he realized his error, the door slammed shut behind him. The coach was locked out. He pounded on the door, to no avail. He raced to the nearest gate and the security, of course, didn't believe his story—Neither did a second guard—In fact he said, "Yeah, right, and I'm the king of England." Meanwhile, back in the locker room the team was wondering where their coach was. As the minutes ticked by—still no coach, no game plan, no leadership. Finally, at a 3rd gate a reporter recognized Curly Lambeau and convinced the guard to let him back in. By this time, the 2nd ½ had begun and that ½ went from bad to worse with the Packers losing and in disarray.

Blessings!
